

ASK TAX INCREASE; TOWN BOARD SAYS 'NO'

Arlington declares shooting war on Starlings

Citizens ask protection; call for firing squad

Arlington Heights village board officially has declared war on starlings whose rendezvous is a five block area on East Euclid, east of Dunton.

The action came after the presentation Monday evening of a petition signed by 25 residents. Several persons of the area affected appeared before the council and voiced their approval of anything that would rid their homes and premises of the birds, which are gathering in ever increasing numbers.

Suggestions of other methods, milder than the organization of a bird shooting detail by the police department, were voted down as being inadequate.

Alderman Hartmann stated that his section of the town were using torpedoes, which serve to drive them out of his locality, but he had no more ammunition.

The bird slaughter started Wednesday evening. Village employees will remove the carcasses from the walks and streets, but residents are asked to collect the birds on their own premises.

A RECORD payroll of nearly $10,000 was passed for payment. August receipts totaled over $25,000. Sales of water amounted to $10,000, real estate taxes $9,000.

Walter Kroeber, as agent for Geo. Poole, asked for permit for paving approaches to the new Ford garage, corner Walnut and Northwest Highway. A resolution was passed requesting the installation of stop and go lights at the intersection of State and Rand roads.

BIDS WERE opened for the installation of a bookkeeping machine in the municipal office. Bids were Underwood-Sanstrand $3,550; Burroughs $3,148; and National $3,360. Auditor Laurin will make a recommendation at the next meeting of the board.

A resident of the Cumberland area, Des Plaines, addressed the board at length on the unsanitary condition of Weller Creek. He was told that Arlington Heights had a sewage treatment plant in successful operation and he should look elsewhere for the contagion source.

Forty-one arrests netted the village $285.00 in fines. Parking violations brought in an additional $114. Drainage and street installations in Arlington Ridge without a check by the village engineers were questioned by newer members of the board. The street committee and city engineer will investigate.

Owner of the corner lot at the intersection of Central and State road opposite Radford Service was told to make a formal request for rezoning from residential to business.

The county treasurer owes some tax foreclosure money, but claims a set-off of $4,000 because of special assessment bookkeeping of 15 or more years ago. Attorney Thal will investigate.

Arlington Heights
August building passes $400,000

August was another big building month in Arlington Heights. Paul Tague, building commissioner issued permits for 31 homes to cost $357,000. Additional permits include the A & P store $35,000, warehouse $5,000, 9 garages $5900, alterations $13,400.

The finest and latest in choice furs to be modeled at Arlington Heights field house Friday evening

Friday evening, September 10, is Fur Fashion show night at the Arlington Heights field house, an event sponsored by the Prospect Heights Nursery school board.

The latest in fur fashions and styling, created by K. D. Hopt, designers of fine furs, will be displayed in typical fashion show procedure with models modeling coats, jackets, scarfs and fur pieces.

LT. Commander W. H. Kimmel will serve as master of ceremonies introducing the styles as well as the professional entertainers. The show will consume approximately two hours, including an intermission during which enter-opening 'attracts'

High school
817 students

Enrollment at Arlington Hgts. high school has far exceeded expectations of the administration and staff.

As of Wednesday, September 8, enrollment was: freshmen 238; sophomores 195; juniors 200, and seniors 164, for a total of 817, as compared to 726 last year. The freshman class is the largest ever to enter Arlington High.

On Tuesday, only freshmen attended school. They met in the assembly for information and general directions. At the close of the assembly they went through regular daily programs and became acquainted with room assignments. School was in session only during the forenoon. Regular school work started for all students on Wednesday.

Mt. Prospect Fall
Festival a big show

Mt. Prospect Fall Festival now in progress is probably the greatest exhibition ever staged in the northwest area. The display of garden produce exceeds that of the Cook Co. Fair in Chicago last week. Flowers, needle work, and canned goods, representing the best grown from field and garden and the choicest products of the homes, kitchens and flower beds of the Mt. Prospect-Elk Grove area are on display at the largest tent ever erected outside of Chicago.

The Lions Club, sponsor of the event, has spared no expense in the arrangements and nightly programs that will be presented. Commercial firms have taken pride in preparing displays of the lines that they handle. An organ concert continues throughout each evening, while wide aisles provide plenty of space for the visitors. There is no way to spend money in the big tent. It is all free.

The free evening entertainment will take place on a large elevated outdoor platform where thousands can see and hear the entertainers.

This fall festival is something apart from the usual neighborhood carnivals and festivals. It was made possible by the cooperation of not alone Mt. Prospect residents but of the entire area.

Prowler scare nets
3 more police calls

The prowler panic still persists in Arlington Heights.

On September 3 at 10:30 p. m. a call to W. Vine street brought officers Karstens and Bracke to search for prowlers. They found none.

Three days later, Ed A. Neverman of 311 N. Vail told police he heard someone pounding in the neighborhood and running down the street. Officer Johnson investigated, but found nothing.

On September 5, Mr. West of 800 N. Hickory reported to police at 6:30 p. m. that several persons were shooting guns around his home. Officer Melbourne found neighborhood boys shooting out in the prairie, and ordered them to stop.

An Arlington wife called police last Saturday to come to her house to remove a gun from a drawer. She was afraid her husband intended to shoot her with the weapon. Officer Bracke answered the call.

Entertainment will be provided. Admission will be 50c per person.

The high luster of Persian will vie with the subtle glimmer of the always correct mink. It will be hard to distinguish between the softly flattering moirés and the regal seal. Milady's wardrobe will be completely represented from the sable scarf for her suit to the elegant platinum mink for her most precious moments.

The professional models, from Prospect Heights, Mount Prospect and Barrington, who will participate are Louise Miller, Lorrie Lynch, Ginni Nessen, Betty Dahl, Pat Barry, Mabel Brown, Lee Palmer and Emily Kirchhoff.

Proceeds from the show are to be used to purchase equipment for the new nursery school which opens at the Community church Monday, October 4.

Refreshments will be served to those attending by a serving committee for which Mrs. R. C. Kaena is chairman. Ladies on the committee are: Mrs. A. E. Armstrong, Mrs. Walter J. Bor-

New faces among the faculty of Arlington high school

library; Jeanne Fretz, of Bradford, Penn., English I and II and speech; Patricia Potts, of Gibson City, dramatics, English II, and workshop; and Irene Krer, of Glenview, speech work.

gym; William Boland, of Bellevue, Iowa, general music; John Schaff, of Elgin, driver training, science and physics; Nicholas Kushta, of Chicago, applied math and geometry; and John Hookom, algebra, physics, advanced algebra and geometry.

Lutheran principal called to Chicago

A. W. Bathje, principal of St. Peter Lutheran school, Arlington Heights, recently accepted a call from Grace Lutheran church, Chicago, to become principal of their parish school and director of music.

In view of his departure, the St. Peter congregation elected A. W. Obermann as acting principal. Mr. Bathje served St. Peter school since 1940. He was elected principal in 1941. It was also his privilege to share the music work during all these years both as organist and choir director.

St. Peter school made remarkable progress in recent years and Mr. Bathje shares in the credit for this accomplishment. Not only has the enrollment increased from 265 to 320, but several thousands of dollars in modern equipment, particularly audio-visual aids, have been procured for the school.

The opening of school has been postponed from September 8 to September 15 in view of the construction of three new classrooms in the school hall now in progress.

Since released time from public schools for religious instruction was ruled unconstitutional by the Supreme Court, parents desiring such instruction for their children are asked to send them to the Christian day school where religious instruction is offered one hour daily.

Fire department asks the village a few questions

Arlington Heights recently purchased a fire engine, but will need adequate housing when it arrives. The fire department wants to know what the village dads are going to do about it. The dads are not certain. He will ask the opinion of Walter Kroeber as to the best way to spend the available $3,000 remaining from the bond issue.

A suggestion was received from the firemen that an ordinance be passed requiring that a member of the department resign if in the future he is elected a member of the village board.

Miss Hazel Beverly, girls' counselor, and Harold Slickemeyer, boys' counselor, outlined the guidance program of the school, showing what has been accomplished and the plans for this year. Members of the athletic, science departments discussed the school's principal program. LeRoy Knoepfel, health director, talked on "Looking to In-Service Training Features."

A summary of the accomplishments for each department of the school and new policies for this year were presented by various teachers. "The Blue Cross" hospitalization plan was presented by Mrs. Helen Guenther while Joseph Bryson presented the I. E. A. medical plan. Miss Jean Hanauer discussed "Attendance."

Members of the workshop committee were Mrs. Hazel Faulkner, chairman, Mrs. Fred Hohenhorst, LeRoy Knoepfel, Harold Slickemeyer, and Nelson Lowry. Mrs. Faulkner presided at each session.

Since the Arlington workshop proved popular as well as beneficial, it will be continued next year.

In the past ten years progressive schools throughout the nation have held workshops to help educate school personnel in new methods of teaching and to discuss problems in guidance, instruction, administration, and physical aspects of the school environment.

Workshops have become popular because results have shown that they have benefited the school and community. Perhaps the best known workshop in this area is one at Leyden township high school, Franklin Park.

AHTHS initiates workshop
for teachers

For the first time in the history of Arlington high school the Arlington faculty attended a teacher's workshop from August 31 thru September 3. Sessions were held in the new science room from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m.

Outside speakers, authorities in their fields, brought to the Arlington faculty many new ideas. Horace S. Gilbert, assistant regional director of the Civil air administration spoke on "Air Education."

L. V. James, lighting consultant for General Electric company, demonstrated his lecture, "Significance of Good Lighting in Schools from the Teachers' Standpoint," with moving pictures and classroom examples of poor and good lighting.

Harry Baurenfiend, director of studies, Gregg college, spoke on "The Role of the Teacher in Secondary School Guidance."

Miss Norma Barts, British information service consultant, lectured on "Audio-Visual Aids."

Actual participation in parliamentary procedure featured each day's session. Under direction of Joseph Bryson, agricultural instructor at the high school, faculty members were instructed in the method of conducting a business meeting. All clubs and homerooms will in the future use parliamentary procedure at all meetings.

Draft registration bags 686 men
at Arlington

Since August 30, 686 men included in draft board 101 have registered at Arlington Heights village hall, Arthur C. Silber, chairman, announced Wednesday evening.

Friday's registration included 101 men; 105 registered on Saturday, 69 on Tuesday and 106 on Wednesday.

Peace-time draft registrations are at the half-way point. Men born in 1926 must register on September 8 or 9; 1927, September 10 and 11; 1928, September 13 and 14; 1929, September 15 and 16; and 1930 before September 19, on September 17 and 18.

Also, young men who reach their eighteenth birthday must register within five days thereafter.

The office of board 101, which comprises Barrington, Palatine, Wheeling, Hanover, Schaumburg and Elk Grove townships, will be located at 839 Touhy avenue, Park Ridge, after September 20. Proper notice will be given of nights the board will meet. There will, however, always be a clerk on duty from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m.

As was announced last week, anyone failing to register on the proper day may do so this Saturday at Arlington Heights village hall from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Anyone losing his draft registration card may obtain a duplicate at the Park Ridge office, at 839 Touhy avenue.

In the first week of draft registration, about 75,000 men signed up at Cook county draft boards, it was estimated Saturday by Colonel Paul G. Armstrong, Illinois draft director. He estimated Saturday that 55,000 Chicagoans and 20,000 men from other parts of the county registered since the sign up began last Monday.

Colonel Armstrong estimated the large boards in November will send three men to induction centers and the smaller boards two men.

He added that although about 225,000 Cook county men will be registered in the 18 to 25 year old age group this month, only about two per cent, or four thousand men will be eligible for induction. The rest are either veterans or are men who have other exemptions.

Football tickets on sale

Season reserved seat tickets for Arlington Heights high school football season go on sale the end of this week, with first game slated for under the lights against Barrington September 17. Complete details may be found on the sport page.

There will be no single admissions available to anyone. The entire idea is based on a membership entitling each member to attend four concerts at no additional charge other than the $5.00 membership.

St. James parish to welcome assistant pastor

A new assistant pastor, Father Richard Rosemeyer, will become associated with St. James church, Arlington Heights, this week, according to Father George Stier.

Father Rosemeyer will be welcomed by parish members at a gathering Tuesday evening, September 14, at 8 p. m. at the school hall. Refreshments also will be served.

Father Rosemeyer was recently ordained at St. Mary's of the Lake Seminary at Mundelein, and this is his first appointment. He received grade school training in LaGrange and also attended Quigley Preparatory Seminary, Chicago.

The new pastor will assist Father Stier in all parish and school duties.

"We need an increased staff," Father Stier stated, "since our school enrollment has been increased by 51 from the 249 students last year. Also 550 families are registered in the parish, a considerable increase over 1947."

Blame tax objections for delay in road improvement this year

Members of Wheeling township town board had an unusual experience Monday evening. Over 20 residents from the Prospect Heights and Hillside areas appeared at the budget hearing of the highway commissioner. They asked for an increased tax levy if the additional amount would mean that road oil would be spread on their area at the beginning of the summer and not at its end.

St. John church to dedicate new organ this Sunday

St. John Evangelical and Reformed church, Arlington Heights, will dedicate a newly installed pipe organ next Sunday, Sept. 12, in two special services. Formal dedication will take place in the morning worship service at 10:30. Mr. Fred Buehler, church organist, will preside and Rev. W. F. Kampenkel will use as his subject, "The Master of the keys." Special music will be furnished by the Chancel choir.

In the evening Mr. Buehler will present an organ recital at 7:45 p. m. "Finlandia" by Sibelius, "Largo" by Dvorak, "Ave Maria" by Schubert, "The Lost Chord" by Sullivan, are among the organ selections. The organ selections will be interspersed with vocal numbers by the quartet of St. John and a guest soloist.

The new electro pneumatic pipe organ in the new console is an asset to St. John Evang. and Reformed church. It was purchased and installed from Schlicker Organ Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

The pipe organ is a gift of the Friendly Circle of the Women's guild of St. John. After the evening service will follow an hour of good fellowship. All neighboring congregations and friends are welcome to attend. Refreshments will be served.

Shirkers? Oh no!

Are womenfolk unwilling to accept civic responsibilities?

Before the Herald office is deluged with denials, we are submitting to their attention the following:

1. A Wheeling resident had to wait over an hour in the Arlington Heights village hall Tuesday morning because there was only one registrar, and she was doing the work for the first time.

2. The appeal for women willing to assist in the cafeterias of the north and south schools two hours one morning a month, has not brought the expected results.

Mothers who are interested in helping out at either of the cafeterias are asked to call Mrs. Mark Cleaver 1403 1/2 south school and Mrs. Arden Scott, 277 1/2 north school. The hours are 10 a. m. to noon. Volunteers can select the day or days they can serve.

homes. Begun as a hobby, these homes attracted attention of architects to the extent they are now being made according to specifications in testing plans and illustrating future homes. An unusual fan collection will include the setting of a table composed entirely of fans. Bird figurines, fine sculpture pieces, and carvings will be shown. An old time postoffice will also be restored.

Delicious luncheons and dinners have always been a popular feature of the antique and hobby show.

The town board welcomed the budget interest of the visitors, but decided to keep the budget figure at $21,000, which is about three thousand dollars more than the previous year.

THE VISITORS learned a few things about the manner in which road maintenance is handled. They were told that Bernie Runge, highway commissioner, does not have exclusive say-so as to the manner in which the tax money is to be spent. Neither does he have a voice as to what roads shall be improved. He can only make recommendations.

The office of George Quinlan, county highway engineer, must approve all project estimates over $200 before the highway commissioner can start on a job.

The county added 18 miles of highway this year to the mileage that must be handled by the township.

Upon the acceptance of a subdivision by the county board, the highway department places upon the township the cost of putting the roads in shape and keeping them that way. The 1948 addition of 18 miles is going to cost Wheeling taxpayers considerable money.

BARNIE RUNGE realizes that the residents of Prospect Heights, without municipal government are forced to depend upon him for improvement of their streets. He regretted that he had no funds to improve their streets in June, but as soon as the tax money was received he hastened the work. His regular road improvement is also hampered by inability to get sufficient help.

The Hillside delegation expressed their pleasure in getting much needed gravel on Chestnut street.

TAX OBJECTIONS are the direct reason why the current road funds of Wheeling township are insufficient to pay operating expenses. A $21,000 road and bridge tax levy does not give the road commissioner that amount of money to spend. That amount is spread over the entire township. Municipalities receive one half of road and bridge taxes that are paid by residents of the villages.

The town board is reluctant to raise the road and bridge tax because it would mean that residents of the villages would be required to pay the greater part of the levy and only half of that increase would be available for road improvement in the unincorporated areas.

A touch and you GO—that's DYNAFLOW!

YES, it boils down to just about that. You start your engine, set a lever — and from then on your treadle foot takes over.

You press the accelerator — and move softly and smoothly away.

You speed up, slow down, halt completely — and your right foot alone, operating gas treadle and brake, does it all.

How come? Simply because Dynaflo Drive is the one passenger car drive in America that gets completely away from gears which function in fixed stages.

Changes in the way oil flows, instead of changes in gears, adjust your engine power to your driving requirements.

Whether you are starting out, climbing a hill, surging past others or cruising easily, there's nothing for you to do except feed gas.

For very fast starts, extreme pulls, reserve braking power, you flick the selector lever—and your engine seems suddenly to double in size.

For parking, there is a very special setting, exclusive to Dynaflo Drive, that rigidly locks rear wheels.

Even rough and chattery roads are made smoother by power that flows along through a cushion of oil — your whole car is "sweeter" in its feel, far silkier in its actions.

Quite rightfully is Dynaflo Drive called the most important development since the self-starter.

It's a basically different way of transmitting power — and one you should know about firsthand.

See what your Buick dealer can do about arranging that for you. The merest sample of Dynaflo magic will make you want to place an order pronto, whether or not you have a car to trade!

Here's your Buick Dealer's Four-Square Selling Policy

1. NO PRICE PADDING. You receive an itemized bill of sale. We display all prices in our showroom.
2. NO "LOADING" OF ACCESSORIES. All cars are delivered with accessories as ordered; no "extras" except those you specify.
3. NO COMPULSORY TRADE-INS. We will accept your order and deliver your car with or without a car in trade.
4. NO COLLUSION WITH "GRAY MARKETERS." We will not knowingly sell Buick cars to anyone who operates in the "gray market."

Shoe repair shop added to Arlington commerce

Joe Mueller, of Arlington Heights, who has been in the shoe repair business for 45 years, opened a local shop at his home on Kirchhoff road, 1/4 mile east of Wilke road, on Tuesday, September 7.

For 20 years he managed his own shop at 3326 North Damen avenue, Chicago. Mueller is 12 years old when he first started to do shoe repair work.

The new businessman chose Arlington Heights for his home in April when the doctor ordered country air for him. The shop will be open six days a week from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m., except Wednesday, 8 a. m. to noon.

Performs great...

To keep your car going great... make a date to OIL-PLATE with Conoco Nth Motor Oil!

A special, added ingredient in Nth oil (Patented) fastens extra lubricant magnet-like to your engine's working parts. So strongly is this extra film attached to cylinder walls, it won't all drain down, even overnight!

That means your engine's fine-finished metal surfaces are extra-protected from corrosive combustion acids... from destructive "dry" friction starts. You're extra-protected, too, from power-clogging sludge and carbon.

For great performance, full-time protection, more miles per quart, make a date for...

Graff $25 fine case is still on

A trip to Chicago criminal court in Wednesday's rain proved fruitless for Chief Skoog, Officers Johnson, Melbourne and Firnbach, Village Clerk Davis and Village Attorney Thal. The village officials expected to testify in the case of Arlington Heights vs. Harry Graff, of Palatine. Graff appealed a decision on drunkenness and disorderly conduct handed down by Judge Gould of Mt. Prospect in April when the plaintiff was fined $5 and $20 on the two charges. Judge Lindsey, who was to have heard the case, was not in court. The matter was referred to Judge Ashcraft, and a return visit will be necessary on October 5.

Graff, who claimed he was arrested falsely on February 25 by Officer Johnson, is also suing Arlington Seating company for $20,000.

Where is it?

A Berwyn resident visited Arlington Heights police department Wednesday afternoon and left ten minutes later without having to pay an over-parking fine.

How come? The ticket was written on August 31 at 2 p. m. for a Buick that was parked long-

Art Franzen attends banking school

Arthur H. Franzen, of Arlington Heights, returned this week from attending a two-week residence session at the school of banking at the University of Wisconsin at Madison. This was the first year of attendance at the school for Franzen, which requires residence attendance for two weeks each year for three years in order to graduate from the school. Sixty-nine students from 16 states received diplomas at graduation exercises Friday evening, September 3, which was addressed by Joseph M. Dodge, president of American Bankers association and president of Detroit Bank, Detroit, Mich. Total enrollment this year was 450 students representing 26 states and the District of Columbia. The school is sponsored by the Central States conference consisting of the bankers associations of 16 states. Attendance at the school of banking enabled Franzen not only to meet a large number of bankers from all over the country but he had the opportunity to listen to and become acquainted with more than 120 distinguished lecturers who are recognized authorities in banking, economics, law and industrial, agricultural and financial problems typified by such men as Sumner H. Slichter, professor

Red apples are favors at AHTHS staff picnic

A "welcome back to school" picnic was given September 2 when Arlington Heights township high school board entertained the high school faculty, office, maintenance and cafeteria staffs. Ninety-one members of the school personnel, including husbands and wives, picnicked at the forest preserve dam No. 1. Amidst the glow of seventy-five hurricane lamps and two sparkling fireplaces the school staff ate a delicious dinner. A paper school house with a welcome mat served as center piece and a red apple was the favor for each guest. Principal LeRoy J. Knoepfel introduced new members of the staff and school board members. Novel group singing under the direction of William Boland, new vocal instructor, highlighted the evening. Humorous selections by a barber shop quartette consisting of Joseph Bryson, Alvin Kuliekie, John Schaff, and William Boland amused the audience, while a vocal solo by Mrs. John Schaff provided a sentimental note. Bob Kemman and Leo Bell served as game callers. General arrangements for the picnic were under the direction of the school's social committee of economics, Harvard university, M. S. Szymczak, member, board of governors, Federal Reserve system, and Allan B. Kline, president, American Farm Bureau federation.

TONI TWINS AT FESTIVAL

The famous Toni twins, whose pictures have appeared recently in leading national magazines, will appear in person at Van Driel's booth at Mt. Prospect festival this Friday, September 10, from 7 to 11 p. m. Pictures of these Toni twins with Senator Barley, Democratic vice presidential candidate, and Governor Warren, Republican vice presidential candidate, were published in the August 28th issue of Life magazine. The Toni twins will answer all questions in regard to the Toni home permanent wave.

Hazel Marquardt weds Clarence Brinkman

Immanuel Lutheran church, Palatine, was the scene Sunday, September 5, of the wedding of Hazel Marquardt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis P. Marquardt of Freeman road, Palatine, to Clarence W. Brinkman Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Brinkman Sr., of Rohlfing road, Palatine.

Rev. W. C. Koester officiated at the ceremony, which took place at 3 p.m.

Miss Marquardt wore a royal blue taffeta gown with matching feathered head-piece for her wedding. Her corsage was of pink sweetheart roses.

Joyce Brinkman, sister of the groom, was maid of honor. She wore a royal blue crepe dress with gold accessories and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses. Best man for the occasion was Herman Philippe Jr., close friend of the groom.

A reception for all close friends and relatives will be held at the home of the groom's parents, Sunday, September 12.

Mr. and Mrs. Brinkman Jr. are now at home at 35 W. Slade street, Palatine.

Dolores Scheer weds Wallace Winkelman

In an impressive double ring candlelight service Saturday, September 4, at 7:30 p.m., Miss Dolores M. Scheer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christ F. Scheer, 1329 Campbell avenue, Des Plaines, became the bride of Wallace Winkelman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Winkelman, 1628 Rand road, Des Plaines.

The marriage was solemnized in Immanuel Lutheran church, Des Plaines, with the Rev. Allen H. Fedder officiating. The church was decorated with palms and 2 baskets of white gladioli, with candelabra on alternating pews down the center aisle. The bridal couple made their vows before the same altar where both had been confirmed.

Miss Marion Winkelman, a cousin of the bridegroom, sang "Because," "Beautiful Savior," and "The Lord's Prayer," and Theodore Appold presided at the organ.

The bride approached the altar on the arm of her father. She wore a gown of ivory faille, fashioned princess style with a long train. The dress had a marquisette yoke and long pointed sleeves, all edged with imported French lace. Her fingertip veil and blusher were of illusion veiling edged with matching lace and flowing from a lace tiara. On a white leather Bible, presented to her by her father, she carried a bouquet of white gardenias, with streamers of fleur d'amour.

She was attended by Miss Jean Kenney, maid of honor, who wore a gown of powder blue faille styled with cap sleeves and butterfly bustle. She carried a marquisette muff, decorated with a heart of red roses enclosed in a ring of white carnations. The bridesmaids, Misses Barbara Schroeder and Dolores Gatzke, and Mrs. Margery Klingel, wore fuchsia faille gowns similar to that of the maid of honor. Their matching muffs were ornamented with red rose hearts encircled with blue dyed carnations and streamered with red roses. All attendants wore heart-shaped rhinestone necklaces, gifts from the bride.

Flower girl was the bride's six-year-old niece, Arlene Scheer. She was the personification of loveliness in a full length gown of powder blue taffeta styled exactly like the other attendants. She carried the same flowered and streamered muff and wore a heart-shaped locket, gift from the bride.

The bridegroom's younger brother, Gordon, was best man. His cousin LeRoy Hasse, and friends Robert Mueller and Roger Klingel, were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a black crepe dress with a black mother, Mrs. William Kruse, wore a blue dress with a corsage of pink carnations.

Following the ceremony a wedding reception for 300 guests was held in Wheeling school. Refreshments were available all evening and a buffet supper was served at midnight. Clarence Weith and orchestra played for dancing.

The couple left immediately after the reception on their honeymoon, a month's trip through the West, along the West coast, by automobile. Upon their return they will make their home with the bride's parents at 1329 Campbell avenue, Des Plaines.

The bride was graduated in 1946 from Maine township high school and later attended Northwestern university school of commerce. She is employed by the First Federal Savings and Loan association of Des Plaines. The bridegroom, a 1945 Maine graduate, served in the navy, and is now employed by Laden-dorf Motors, Inc., Des Plaines, and attends Northwestern university in the evenings.

The new bride was honored at three pre-nuptial showers. One of the bride's sisters-in-law, Mrs. Wilbert E. Scheer, sponsored a shower party on July 23 at Park Ridge fieldhouse. The bride's attendants on August 6 gave her a surprise shower. Another miscellaneous shower was held in Dundee on August 8, with the bride's two sisters, Mrs. Theodore Wettersman and Mrs. Theodore Schultz as hostesses.

Berghorn, Behrens wedding solemnized

Miss Marie Behrens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Behrens, of Roselle, was married to George H. Berghorn, son of Mrs. Rose Berghorn, of Prairie View, in a ceremony at St. Peter Evangelical Lutheran church, Schamburg, on Sunday, September 5.

Rev. W. H. Mehlberg officiated at the 2:30 p. m. ceremony. George Schlie was organist, and Spencer Nash sang "Because," and "The Lord's Prayer." The church was decorated with baskets of white gladioli, ferns and candles.

The new Mrs. Berghorn wore a gown of white satin, with a round, sheer neckline to complete a shoulder effect. The gown had a long train, fitted bodice and peplum edged with lace, while the neckline also was trimmed in lace and seed pearls. Her fingertip veil was held by a tiara of seed pearls, and she carried a cascade of stephanotis and gardenias.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, George H. Behrens. Serving as matron of honor was Miss Betty Ann Goebbert, of Arlington Heights, who wore a Nile green taffeta gown styled with a sheer neckline and drop-shoulder effect similar to the bride's gown. Miss Goebbert's gown also had a fitted bodice and a bustle. She wore a cluster of gladioli in her hair, and carried a cascade of orchid-colored gladioli.

Miss Violet Schoo, of Bensenville, and Miss Vernetta Goebbert of Mt. Prospect, were bridesmaids and wore orchid gowns similar to that of the maid of honor. Their flowers were identical to those of the maid of honor.

Ralph Berghorn, brother of the groom, was best man, while Kenneth Buesching of Lake Zurich, and Harold Loefer, of Glenview, served as ushers.

A dinner for the bridal party and immediate families was held at the Dinnerhall in Lake Zurich, followed by a reception for 450 guests at Wheeling gymnasium.

The couple will honeymoon for a week at Indian River, Mich. After September 12 they will be at home at Quentins road, Lake Zurich.

Virginia couple wed in Heights

In a double ring service Friday, September 3, at 7 p. m., Miss Karlita Auer and William L. Keller, of St. Charles, Virginia, were united in marriage at the home of Mrs. Irene Lamprecht, 9 E. Campbell street, Arlington Hgts.

Rev. Edwin I. Stevens of Mt. Prospect South church read the service.

The bride was attended by Miss Dolores Radde of Elgin as maid of honor. Robert Mengler, also of Elgin, was best man.

The bride's gown was two-piece brown taffeta with brown accessories. She carried a white Bible to which a corsage of white roses was tied.

The maid of honor wore a lime green dress with brown accessories, and wore a corsage of talisman roses.

The guests were relatives from Berwyn, Riverside and Elgin. Following the ceremony, a dinner was served at Plentywood Farm tea room at Bensenville.

Stork shower

Mrs. Edward Jaster was guest of honor Thursday, September 2, at a stork shower given by Mrs. John Bakalar. Twelve friends viewed the opening of gifts, after which a luncheon was served. Pink and blue prevailed in the decoration theme; a pink and blue rattle was at each place at the table.

Barbara Cooper, William Weber say wedding vows

In a candlelight ceremony at Arlington Heights First Presbyterian church on Saturday, September 4, Miss Barbara Jane Cooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O. Cooper, of 208 E. Euclid, Arlington Heights, became the bride of William F. Weber, son of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Weber, of 738 N. Pine avenue, Arlington Heights.

The service was read by Rev. C. Victor Brown in front of an altar decorated with palms and four huge baskets of white gladioli and two candelabra.

Mrs. Richard Lull, of Arlington Heights, was organist and Mrs. Robert Malcolm, of Arlington Heights, was vocalist. Immediately preceding the wedding procession Mrs. Malcolm sang "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte and "Ich Liebe Dich" by Grieg. During the procession and recessional Mrs. Lull played the organ, accompanied by Mrs. Malcolm on the violin. "Claire de Lune" by Debussy was played during the ceremony.

The bride's gown was of heavy white taffeta with a very fitted bodice. The extremely full skirt was worn over a hoop and ended in a train. The neckline of the dress was finished with a bertha of self-material, and the long fitted sleeves ended in points. The bride's veil was fingertip length, held in place by a tiara of orange blossoms.

The bride's flowers consisted of a center of white roses with white stephanotis.

The new Mrs. Weber was given in marriage by her father, Thomas O. Cooper. Serving as matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. William L. Hull, of Arlington Heights, who wore a gown of pink taffeta identical with that of the bride, with the exception of short sleeves. She carried pink roses to match her dress and two shades of blue snapdragons. A spray of the same flowers was in her hair.

David J. Heller was best man, while John Otzen, Harold Haugen and Robert Eich served as ushers.

A reception for 200 guests was held after the ceremony in the church parlors.

The mother of the bride wore a light gray dress with dark red accessories. Her flowers were red roses. The groom's mother wore a garnet colored outfit and she wore orchid gladioli fashioned to resemble an orchid.

Many of the guests were fraternity brothers of the groom, who belongs to Phi Sigma Kappa. They serenaded the bride with the fraternity sweetheart song.

Mr. Weber served three years in the submarine service during the war. The new Mrs. Weber attended Monmouth college where she affiliated with Pi Beta Phi.

The couple will honeymoon in El Paso, Texas, and Carlsbad Caverns, New Mexico. When they return they will go directly to Knox college, Galesburg, where the groom has six months of school to finish before receiving his degree.

Bisons to open play Saturday night against alumni

Card 8 tilts for co-champs, seek one more

Bensenville high school's Bisons, co-champs last year in the Northwest conference, have scheduled their first game for this Saturday night against local alumni. Play will start at 8 p. m. under lights.

Coach Tom Meneguini has had his charges getting in shape since August 25. Culling of the squad has resulted in 30 boys on the varsity team, with plenty of new faces to replace the veterans lost last year by graduation.

SIX LETTERMEN are back this year for the Bisons, including four linemen and two backs. Vuglar at center, Yeazle at guard, and Miller at tackle will continue as starters.

End of last year, Baldwin, will be shifted to the backfield this season. Keller and Komay are returning backfield aces of the '47 season. A few other good prospects for coming league play include Docterman at guard, Des-Launies at end and Freiney, good soph prospect two years ago who had an after school job last year. Tomchaff is being shifted to full back for Coach Meneguini.

AFTER the alumni game Saturday, September 11, the Bisons travel to Hinsdale for an afternoon game Friday, September 17. The locals play at Leyden the night of September 24, have an open date (thus far) October 1, then open conference play at Barrington.

Complete schedule:

Saturday, Sept. 11, Alumni, here, 8 p. m.

Friday, Sept. 17, Hinsdale, there, afternoon.

Friday, Sept. 24, Leyden, there, 8 p. m.

Friday, Oct. 1, open date.

Friday, Oct. 8, Barrington, there.

Saturday, Oct. 16, Grant, there, 8 p. m.

Friday, Oct. 22, Palatine, here, 8 p. m.

Friday, Oct. 29, Northbrook, there.

Friday, Nov. 5, Antioch, here, 8 p. m.

Rockets to play Friday against Baltimore

Chicago Rockets play host to Baltimore Colts this Friday night, Sept. 10, under the lights at Soldier Field in their third attempt to gain the win column of the All-American conference. The "new" Rockets looked good in their first league defeat at the hands of Los Angeles two weeks ago, 7-0. But the Buffalo Bills ran at will over the locals, 42-7, Labor Day.

This Friday Coach Ed McKeever's boys will be out to prove Monday's exhibition was all a mistake, and garner a victory from a team that has a one and one record to date.

Again next week the Rockets play at home when Cleveland Browns come to town.

Barrington vs. Dundee on Heights field Friday night

Barrington Broncos footballers will engage Dundee this Friday night on the "Arlington Heights field under lights. This will be the first night of the gridiron sport this season in Arlington. The Cards open at home against Barrington a week from Friday, Sept. 17.

Voss Foods takes over in golf on final night's play

Voss Food Shop composed of L. Arnold, J. Campbell Sr., D. Dieball and C. Poss, won the 1948 golf title in the Arlington Golf league. Voss Food Shop was never in first place throughout the entire season, with the exception of the final night. They took seven points from Kitty Korner to ease ahead of Eddie's Liquors, who was swamped by Schiller Carpet, 6 to 2.

All league golfers will participate in a final tournament to be held Sunday, September 12. The leading alternates were D. Ross and W. Copeland who were tied at 30½ points.

Bears off to East, back in city Oct. 4

Chicago Bears' three pass-tossers, Luckman, Lujack and Layne, threw their mates to a one-sided victory Sunday afternoon over the Boston Yanks, 42-7. The Bears ran up 35 points before falling before the Yanks offense in the final period.

Fans who wanted to see Lujack and Layne don their spurs got their chance as the former accounted for one TD pass, and Layne two. Luckman, of course, started the Bears ball rolling, then rested on the sidelines while the newcomers proved their worth.

The Bears were slated to meet Boston again this Thursday night, Sept. 9, at Hershey, Pa., then travel to New York for a night game Sept. 14. Chicago fans' next chance to see the Bears will be the night of October 4 when they tangle with their crosstown rivals at Comiskey Park.

Chicago Cardinals off to Philadelphia, in home city Sept. 19

Chicago Cardinals, fresh from their 46-20 exhibition victory over Washington Redskins in Denver, headed for Philadelphia this week, hoping for victory number for the year, Friday night. The Big Red looked impressive Labor Day, as well as in the previous all-star contest, and things are looking bright for Coach Conzelmann's charges in the forthcoming NFL race.

After meeting the Eagles Friday, the football Cardinals will appear in Chicago at Wrigley Field against the Pittsburgh Steelers in a benefit contest Sunday, September 19.

8 lettermen to start next week against Barrington in season opener for Cards

Tickets go on sale with reserved season seats

Eight veteran lettermen are back this year for the 1948 Cardinal football team at Arlington Heights high school, with Coach Curtis Larsen bringing up many numeral winners from last year's varsity eleven to form the nucleus of a 33-man squad for an eight-game schedule.

Head coach Larsen, and assistants Bell and Cramer, have set up three sets of backs and two lines for the season's play, which opens under lights on the Heights field against Barrington September 17.

New bleachers are in place for that game, and tickets will be on sale Friday for students and adults for both single games and the season. Athletic Director Wally Grace announced this week that established prices this season are: 50c for students and 80c for adults for single games; reserved seats are $1.10; season adult tickets, all reserved between the 40 yard lines, are $4. Tickets will be on sale at the high school and at Millay's.

EIGHT LETTERMEN back at Arlington include seven seniors, and one junior. Linemen back this year include Ken Bork at center, LeRoy Grandt at tackle, Tony Morretti at guard, Jim Stavros at tackle and Bill Wiest at guard. Stavros and Wiest are being shifted to guard and center, respectively, this year.

Veteran backs returning to the gridiron are Bill Robinson at quarter, quarterback Chuck Fischer who has been shifted to half, and fullback August Krause, only junior letterman on the team.

Three injuries have been recorded thus far, though none of them are of too serious nature. Stavros broke a blood vessel in his shoulder, McDougal suffered a sprained arch, and Morretti smashed a finger off the middle Saturday. First scrimmage was held last week end, weeding out some of the hopefuls from the varsity squad, with more to be dropped in the future, bringing the team down to 33 at home, and 26 traveling.

THREE SETS of backs are included in the plans of the coaching staff, with Robinson, Fischer, Gordon Busse and Krause the number one men. Right behind can be found Durland, Ragland, Breda and Heinze, while bringing up the rear will be Nelson, Fastek, Paul Roche and Kostka. Linemen surviving the cut to date, with one more man still to be dropped, include:

Centers: Bill Wiest and Ken Bork, seniors, and Bernard Brock, junior. Guards: Jim Stavros and Tony Morretti, seniors, Bob Schultz and Bob Bartlett, sophomores, and Emmett McDougal and Bob Jackisch, juniors. Tackles: George Kovacic, Jim Schwartz and Arnold Kost, sophomores, LeRoy Grandt and Vic Bittner, seniors, and John Deininger and George Winkelman, juniors.

Ends: Doug Gilman, Dick Spratt, and Ron Anderson, juniors, and Wally Page, Phil Theis, David Archibald and Paul Mueller, seniors.

FOUR HOME games are on the schedule for the Cards, all under lights and beginning at 8 p. m. These include Barrington September 17, Crystal Lake for homecoming October 8, Niles for 'A' club men's night October 22, and Libertyville for Dads' night October 29.

Traveling contests include Marmion military academy at Aurora September 24, Kankakee October 1, Belvidere October 15 and Leyden November 5.

1947 Fire Toll
U. S. forest service says enough trees of saw-timber size were destroyed by fire in 1947 to build 86,000 five-room homes.

Card grid ticket sale on this week

Tickets for the home football games of Arlington Heights high school Cardinals will be on sale the end of this week at both school and Millay's at Davis near Dunton. The gridgers play host to Barrington here under lights Friday, September 17 and play each Friday night, giving fans a four at home, four away schedule. All games start at 8 p. m.

With erection of the new bleachers on the field, reserved seats between the 40 yard stripes are something new that have been added for the coming season. These seats can be purchased either for the season or single games.

Prices: Season reserved, season $4.00; single reserved seat, $1.10; adult single game, 80c; students single game, 50c.

SCHEDULE includes the following home games:

Friday, Sept. 17, Barrington.
Friday, Oct. 8, Crystal Lake.
Friday, Oct. 22, Niles.
Friday, Oct. 29, Libertyville.
Traveling contests:
Friday, Sept. 24, Marmion at Aurora.
Friday, Oct. 1, Kankakee.
Friday, Oct. 15, Belvidere.
Friday, Nov. 5, Leyden at Franklin Park.

The Hotentots again

People who saw the baseball show put on by the colored sport ball team, the Hotentots, at Barrington a few months ago will want to be back at Barrington this Friday night when the Hotentots make a return appearance. This time they play the Burlington, Wisconsin team, and soft ball fans who want to see a real show will again be on hand in large numbers.

What the Harlem Globe Trotters are to basketball, the Hotentots are to soft ball.

Three Northwest Conference schools go into action on the gridiron this coming week-end against non-league opponents. Barrington's strong contender will play tough Dundee of the Little Seven League in a night game at Arlington Heights Friday night. It will be the first of three games Barrington plays under the Arlington lights. Next Friday the Broncos play Arlington and on October 1 play Zion at Arlington Heights.

Grant prepares for title defense
Grant's co-champs, with almost an entire varsity squad made up of lettermen, will open at home against their usual first game opponent, St. Marys of Woodstock Saturday night. St. Marys is a very small school and always has a real scrappy outfit but appears much too weak for the Grant powerhouse.

Palatine has possibilities but may not be ready
Palatine's green, but coming Pirates will open at Elmhurst Saturday afternoon against Immaculate Conception high. Last year a supposedly better Palatine team lost 20-0 to the Catholic school. It is our guess that the game this year might be much closer.

Weak pass defense cost the Pirates the game a year ago. Palatine has a better line in the making than for many years. How good they will be at this point remains to be seen.

Looks like lean years for Lake Forest after undefeated record
Over at Lake Forest, Coach Ed Lindenmeyer, whose record shows more championships than anything else, will face a very lean year. All his undefeated varsity squad of 1947 are gone.

Holiday tournament at Palatine hits a snag
Palatine has thus far been able to sign but two schools for their annual holiday tournament. If played it would have to be held on New Years Eve and New Years night. Leyden and Arlington agreed to enter. Bensenville declined as did Niles. J. E. Stutzman, athletic director, is looking for another school with only a faint hope of landing one. It looks like the tournament would be out for this year. Arlington, Leyden, and Niles are all three entered in the fast DeKalb tournament.

Vikings open at Batavia with depleted squad
Northbrook football fortunes have been badly hurt by graduation. When the Vikings travel to Batavia Friday night to meet a very strong opening opponent, they will have only four veterans including two regulars in the lineup. The following Friday afternoon Lake Forest will play at Northbrook. Coach Bill Lutz has only 35 boys out for the grid sport with a new assistant coach, Clarence Gallagher, to assist him. To no indication Northbrook will not be a first division team in the Northwest Conference.

Grayslake has 65 out of 225 students out for football
Jack Stickels, coach of Grayslake High has the largest turnout for football in proportion to

Turf Billiards win opener, 7-1; to play quarter-finals Friday

Turf Billiards softball team, champions of this year's Arlington Heights league, won their opening contest Sunday afternoon in the Northeastern softball tournament at Libertyville. The locals beat Niles AC, 7-1. They will meet NAC of Waukegan, Lake county champs, in the third round contest this Friday night at 9 p. m.

If Arlington wins Friday night, they are slated to meet the winner of the Libertyville-Lake Forest contest Sunday night, Sept. 12, at 8:45 p. m. in the semi-finals. If the team is still winning, championship game will be played Tuesday, Sept. 14, at 8:15 p. m.

Non-conference games

school population of any school in this area. The Lakers have 65 out of an enrollment of 225 practicing the gridiron sport. Stickels has 10 lettermen for the first season in the new North Suburban league.

Stickels played on two undefeated teams

Stickels has the distinction of having played on a Libertyville team in 1933 which was undefeated and unscored on, coached by Jack Martin. Later he played on an undefeated grid team at Lake Forest and received all-conference mention as a tackle. Grayslake was a newly created school last year and Stickels has had to start from scratch in developing football. Antioch will be the first opponent at Grayslake on Saturday afternoon, September 18.

Locals beat Woodstock to gain finals

It will be the Arlington Redwings and North Chicago for the Northeast Illinois Baseball league championship Sunday afternoon in Recreation Park at 3:00 o'clock.

The Redwings earned their place in the title contest by defeating the powerful Woodstock club 4-2. North Chicago downed Oak Park 9-4 in a game which had Oak Park in the lead most of the way.

Jack Brumm had to pitch the best game he ever threw in holding Woodstock to 9 hits, two of which were gathered by Guy Curtright, former White Sox center field star. Up to the fifth inning the visitors made but 2 hits, both by Curtright. The Redwings were ahead 2-0 at that point but in the fifth inning it appeared that Brumm was ready to collapse. Woodstock made 4 hits in the fifth inning but could score only one run.

GAIL BACH, Redwing shortstop made 3 sensational over the shoulder catches, one with a diving finish, during the game to keep the visitors out of the scoring column. The defensive work of Bach was the most sensational playing seen here in many seasons.

The Redwings were ahead through the entire game jumping into a 2-0 lead in the first inning as the Woodstock infield seemed a bit nervous failing to handle the ball cleanly. Woodstock's fifth inning rally of one run was balanced by the Redwings when Groh, Gaare and Schiewe hit safely.

In the sixth Kuppe, Woodstock second baseman, sent Brumm's pitch for a home run, the ball soaring over the Redwing right fielder's head and rolling almost up to Belmont avenue. With the slim 3-2 at this point Brumm again began to bear down giving up but two hits in the last 3 innings.

THE FOURTH and final run for Arlington came in the eighth on Bob Henry's double down the left field line and Jack Brumm's one base hit scoring Henry.

Earl Simpson's three hits featured the Redwing batting but Groh, Gaare, Henry and Brumm were close behind with 2 safe blows each. Bach's defensive play was outstanding but Pete Groh, Redwing center fielder, deserves credit for several fine plays.

The championship game Sunday brings North Chicago, recent winner of the Illinois State Semi Pro Baseball Tournament, and the Redwings together for the third time this year. The Redwings won the first encounter 13-3 early in the season. Later at North Chicago, with the game tied 5-5 in the sixth inning, a disputed decision on a batted ball, on which the umpire reversed his decision without any reason, caused such turmoil the umpires left the field and awarded the game to North Chicago.

This third meeting should prove exciting. The Redwings feeling toward their opposition is comparable to the rivalry of the Cubs and Brooklyn during the Durocher era at Flatbush. There is no doubt that the local club will have to maintain their peak performance of last week if they hope to win this title game. What will happen no one knows, but it should be a thriller.

On Labor Day the Redwings went to Algonquin and downed that club 14-9 after being behind, 7-0, in the second inning. Leitz, Schiewe, and Bach hit home runs for the Redwings.

At Chicago

Thirteen Chicago metropolitan northwest side students were among the 547 graduates of the University of Chicago's 234th convocation at Rockefeller Memorial Chapel Thursday.

Paul G. Hoffman, Economic Cooperation Administrator and alumnus of the University of Chicago, was the principal speaker at the convocation, which also marked the fiftieth anniversary of the university's School of Business.

Master's degree was conferred upon: Mercie Elode Heise, 50 N. Hale street, Palatine.

Northwest side residents who received master of business administration degrees included Lonnie R. Hinds, 520 S. State road, Arlington Heights.

At Cleveland

Miss Margery Mack, of Arlington Heights, recent graduate of Ferry Hall school, has been accepted for admission by Flora Stone Mather college of Western Reserve University, according to announcement by Miss Elizabeth Walker, dean of admissions of Mather college.

The new students will be entertained on September 19 at a tea in their honor to be given on the campus by the alumnae and the college. The following day classes of the 123rd winter session will open.

At the Citadel

Cadet Frank Elwood Bloomenshine, of 614 South Pine st., Arlington Heights, recently appointed cadet captain in The Citadel corps of cadets, has been selected as a member of the training cadre. He will report to The Citadel, the Military College of South Carolina, not later than 10:00 a. m., September 20.

Selection for the training cadre is traditional, an honor at The Citadel, for only those cadets deemed most capable of instructing and leading new cadets are chosen for this appointment.

Cadet Bloomenshine, who is taking the history course, is a member of the Chicago-Citadel club, and is active in the intramural athletic program.

YOUR OLD FLAME HAS THE New Look!

...Better Baking with a modern GAS range!

YOU'LL FIND every baking session ends with success... when you have a modern GAS range. There's no guesswork—no mathematics involved. Accurate temperature controls give you the exact shade of steady heat you want... without hot spots. The ovens of the new ranges are ventilated for uniform baking... thickly insulated for a cooler kitchen and lower fuel bills. A minute minder ticks off the time and lets you know when food is done. Some new ranges have two ovens... you can use one for baking and one for roasting. Others have one large oven... plenty big enough for an entire, economical oven meal.

You can have automatic oven cooking with your new GAS range, too! While you spend the afternoon shopping, a dependable clock control turns the oven on... maintains the correct heat until the meal is done... and turns the oven off—automatically! Some ranges have a glass window in the oven door... you can see what's cooking from the outside looking in. And, of course, the oven—like the burners and broiler—lights automatically!

The New Look in GAS ranges means new beauty plus greater economy. You'll like the rounded edges, sparkling white porcelain, and flush to the wall and floor construction. Yes, combined with their new good looks, today's GAS ranges offer added dependability and economy. So no matter which features you're looking for in a range... you'll find GAS has everything! Now you can replace your old range with one that's even more efficient.

When people everywhere agree on a product, you know that product is good!

All America Likes CHEVROLET'S Bodies by Fisher

...bodies that are exclusive to Chevrolet in the low-priced field!

More Value in Riding Comfort

Your own tests will convince you that Chevrolet's Unitized Knee-Action Gliding Ride, plus Chevrolet's Body by Fisher, result in more riding comfort.

More Value in Performance with Economy

Only Chevrolet, in its price field, gives you the performance advantages—at low operating costs—of a "World's Champion" valve-in-head engine.

More Value in All-round Safety

You ride in maximum safety in your Chevrolet with Fisher Unitized Body Construction, Unitized Knee-Action Gliding Ride and Positive-Action Hydraulic Brakes.

It is not by chance that Chevrolet's bodies by Fisher are so beautiful, so luxurious, so safe! Behind each body is forty years of motor-car coachcraft experience... forty years of building master bodies for precision-minded America. To matchless craftsmanship have been added the methods and the metals of modern body engineering. Today, in your Chevrolet Body by Fisher, you are protected by steel... cushioned by materials that add ease and relaxation to every driving mile. And when you consider that such body-comfort, such body-luxury, such body-safety is available at lowest cost you begin to understand why MORE PEOPLE BUY CHEVROLETS THAN ANY OTHER CAR!

Compare Values!...

Preserving the younger generation

The four youngsters in this week's baby panel are all in the nursery age and must wait one or two years to join older playmates in school.

At the far left is little Laurel Lee Koop, 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton W. Koop, of 315 S. Dunton, Arlington Heights. Laurel Lee has blonde hair and blue eyes.

She and her parents are newcomers to Arlington Heights. They moved here from Wilmette on March 15.

In the center are Janet and Jeffrey Beckman, children of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Beckman, of 127 S. State road, Arlington Heights. Janet is one and one-half years old, and her big brother is twelve months older. Both have blonde hair and blue eyes.

Nancy Ann Claudine Dresmal is shown at far right. Nancy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Dresmal of 534 S. Vail, Arlington Heights, and is three and one-half years old. She has blue eyes and blonde hair and wears her hair in a becoming modified Dutch bob style.

Nancy Ann has an older brother and sister, Arlene, 10, and Jim, 9. Arlene is in the fifth grade and Jim in the fourth at South school.

In last week's article, JoAnn and Betty Riley, children of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Riley, were pictured with their cousin Robert Holzinger, who was visiting in Arlington Heights at the time due to the death of his father. Robert is not the son of Mr. and Mrs. Riley, as last week's story stated.

OBITUARIES

Andrew Wittmann

Funeral services for Andrew Wittmann, 48, of Prairie View, who died in St. Joseph hospital, Elgin, on September 1, were held last Saturday, September 4, from St. Mary's church, Buffalo Grove. The body lay in state at Lauterburg and Oehler chapel, Arlington Heights.

Interment was at St. Mary's cemetery, Buffalo Grove.

Wittmann was born on October 21, 1900, in Germany. His occupation was maintenance engineer.

He is survived by his wife, Marie, and two children.

Maria D. Schroeder

Funeral services for Maria D. Schroeder of Dempster street, Morton Grove, who died in the Lutheran Deaconess hospital, Chicago, September 5, were held September 8. Pastor Allen H. Fedder of Immanuel Lutheran church, Des Plaines, officiated. Burial was in Concordia cemetery.

Mrs. Schroeder was born in Germany August 28, 1855, and lived to the age of 93 years and 8 days. She was preceded in death by her husband, the late Frank Schroeder, and a daughter Emma.

Survivors are her children, Helen, Louis A., Theodore, Arthur E., Minnie Lewerenz, and Augusta Golbeck, and nine grandchildren.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of Staff Sgt. Christ W. Samuelovitch who was killed in action four years ago on September 14, 1944 in Germany. Some say time heals an aching heart. But no, it isn't true. For four long years have passed. Dear Mother, Dad, Sister and Nephew.

Mrs. Henry Karnatz

Funeral services for Mrs. Henry Karnatz, 51, of Des Plaines, were held Monday, September 6, at 2 p.m. from Oehler funeral home, Des Plaines, with Rev. Allen H. Fedder officiating.

Burial was in Town of Main cemetery, Park Ridge.

Mrs. Karnatz, nee Fick, was born October 9, 1896, at Jefferson township. She was confirmed in 1909 by Pastor Paul Luecke at St. John church in Mayfair, Chicago.

On November 3, 1917, she was married to Henry Karnatz by Rev. Paul Luecke. The couple made their home in Tessville, now called Lincolnwood, until 1922. They then moved to the farm on Aigonquin and Wolf roads, where Mrs. Karnatz lived until her death.

She was a member of Immanuel Lutheran church, Des Plaines. Mrs. Karnatz died at Lutheran Deaconess hospital on September 2 at the age of 51 years, 10 months and 24 days.

She leaves to mourn her husband, five children, Edward and William, Raymond and Laverne, of Des Plaines; four brothers, Louis, of Franklin Park, and Ben, of Des Plaines; one sister, Mrs. Herman Kempke; three daughters-in-law; and five grandchildren.

CARD OF THANKS

May we take this method of thanking neighbors and friends, Mr. Oehler and Rev. Allen H. Fedder for their kind expressions of sympathy in our bereavement. These expressions have been deeply appreciated.

Mr. Henry A. Karnatz and family.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to take this opportunity of thanking our many friends and neighbors for their kind acts during our recent bereavement.

Mrs. Carl Larsen and family.

Wills filed

MARY KIEFER

The will of Mary Kiefer, late of Morton Grove, who died July 6, leaving an $8,000 estate, has been probated. She left her real estate to her daughter, Thunelda Steil, of Morton Grove, and gave her and another daughter, Hattie Kidlake, of Morton Grove, equal shares in the residue of her estate. Thunelda was named executrix of the will.

SAMUEL CHRISTOFANO

In Probate court the estate of the late Samuel L. Christofano, of Morton Grove, who died Mar. 4, intestate, has been opened. His estate comprises a $15,000 claim for his wrongful death. His heirs are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Christofano, two brothers and a sister, all of Morton Grove.

FRED FARMER

Fred R. Farmer, late of Wilmette, who died July 20, and left a $20,000 estate, willed $500 to his sister-in-law, Ann Weyerker, of Barrington.

ELEANOR WILLIAMS

Eleanor Williams, of Des Plaines, who died May 28 left a one-eighth share in her $4,000 estate to Eva Herk, niece, of Des Plaines.

CARL BURLAGE

Carl J. Burlage, late of Des Plaines, who died January 5 left his $5,000 estate to his widow, Salina, and named her executrix of his will.

ADOLF ZIEKERT

Adolf Ziekert, of Roselle, was left a one-fourth share in the estate of his uncle, Oswald Ziekert, of Chicago. He died July 18 leaving a $15,000 estate.

ELIZA BORN

Mrs. Eliza Born of Barrington, who died Aug. 11, leaving a $8,500 estate left half to her son, John, of Dundee and half to a grand-daughter, Dawn Goracio, of Lake Forest.

Crystal Lake VFW

The annual V.F.W. summer festival at Crystal Lake, is expected to net about $2,000, it was estimated Monday. The gross receipts were between $3,500 and $4,000.

Park Ridge 'target' on air force day

Park Ridge will be the "target" of a pair of Air Force B-29s, two of 50 which will take off from overseas bases around the globe to stage a simultaneous mock raid at noon Sept. 18 to mark the observance of Air Force Day.

The planes that will land at Orchard Place air port are scheduled to fly non-stop from Keflavik, Iceland, a hop of 4,499 miles.

Another feature of Air Force Day at Orchard will be an "open house" in the famed museum which has on exhibit the planes used by both warring sides in World Wars I and II.

Legion convention to honor gold stars

America's dead of both World Wars will be honored in an impressive memorial service during the 30th annual state convention of the American Legion here Sept. 10-13.

The service—holding one of the most important spots on the convention program—will be held at 10:45 a. m., Sept. 12, in the Mural Room of the Morrison hotel. It will run for one hour and fifteen minutes.

Principally musical, the service will feature the 70-voice chorus of the Continental Illinois National Bank & Trust Co. of Chicago, Prof. Wyatt Willard, a former U. S. Marine Corps chaplain and now on the faculty of Wheaton college, will be the principal speaker.

Autoists must take care with school on once more

The reopening of public and parochial schools in Chicago and Cook county Tuesday, Sept. 7, confronts motorists with the urgent necessity to recondition their driving habits in school and cross walks in school areas. Charles M. Hayes, president of the Chicago Motor club, warns:

Extra caution and reduced driving speeds at intersections and cross walks in school areas are necessary to avert traffic accidents among 71,000 youngsters returning to public and parochial schools in Cook county out-

Telephone tips

How to place a Long Distance call correctly

Suppose that right now you want to call some distant part of the United States. How long do you think it would take?

If you'd say "two minutes," you'd be just about right! Two minutes is all it takes, on the average, to connect you to any telephone in the country, or give you a report on your call.

Some calls go through even faster if you place your call correctly.

LIKE THIS

Say you want to call Philadelphia. First thing you do is ask the operator for "Long Distance." (From a dial telephone dial "0" for Operator.) Give the name of the called town first, then the telephone number and the name of the person you are calling. Like this:

"Philadelphia—Walnut 2-0100 (pause)—Mr. A. D. Jones."

Placing your call this way means faster service since with your first word (the name of the city), the operator is "connecting" your line to the line of the city called.

If you merely want to be connected with a certain number, say:

"PHILADELPHIA—WALNUT 2-0100"

This type of call costs less because you are willing to talk to anyone who answers.

If you don't know the telephone number, just give the Long Distance operator the town name, the name and address of the person, business or organization you are calling.

DON'T say, "I want to place a Long Distance call to..."

DON'T give your own number to the operator until she asks for it.

FOR FASTER SERVICE

Following these simple suggestions will help speed through your calls. We're installing new switchboards and hundreds of new circuits to give wings to your words out of town. We're trying to make your service faster, more dependable, always friendly.

Need stage for Palatine band

Palatine should have band concerts providing a suitable stand for the band.

Every Tuesday evening a large number of people will be found around the town hall listening to the boys. If the neighborhood farmers knew the concert was given on a certain night each week, it would tend to bring them to town regularly, which would mean more business.

And by the way, perhaps it is not known that Ewald Clausins has been leader of the boys during summer months. — 1908 —

Drama season opens with 'Ticcy'

The importance of the opening of the Chicago Opera house Saturday night, September 12, will be made so by the combination of facts concerning the initial production of "Ticcy."

This comedy is from the pen of William Gillette. Every member of the large company of "Ticcy" has been carefully selected by Mr. Gillette and Mr. Frederic Thompson, producer. Rehearsals under supervision of Winchell Smith have been many. Seats and boxes for the opening are now being sold at the box office. Prices are from 50 cents to $1.50 per evening. All performances begin at 8:15 p. m. and matinees at 2:15 p. m. The theater has been redecorated and completely renovated. — 1908 —

Itasca department store burns

An extraordinary amount of excitement occurred between midnight and 1 a. m. Monday morning in Itasca when a fire was discovered in the basement of the Kuhlman and Rosenwinkel department store. The fire was first noticed by Arnold who called families and neighbors. The church bell was rung. Bensenville fire department also was called, but Itasca citizens, by vigorous effort, soon extinguished the blaze. Considerable damage was done to the store and goods by fire, smoke and water. — 1908 —

It Happened Here...

When Ed is irrigating the lawn in the late evening the neighbors stop by for a bit of gossip which we should never otherwise share. Ruth D. stopped by, said she was just coming home from the Smiths and he was eating his dinner. "Pretty late to eat dinner, isn't it?" "Oh no, he's always that late." "How come?" "Well, it's this way; it takes him two hours to eat. He starts at the regular time and then wanders off to do something else and then comes back and starts all over again." "Must be trying for Mrs. Smith." "O, it's all in getting used to it." And so we get these and other cozy details, our own oddities perhaps remaining undisclosed, but the price food is these days, we wonder how Mrs. Smith keeps him going for two hours. This is bluejay season; from five to six visit our yard every day and their colorful comings and goings make of it a small Eden. On one occasion they gave us a memorable performance in the big tree, dancing, bowing, sidling and mincing while they shouted to high heaven. We are convinced that when they take their baths they use the reflection of the white phox for perfumed bath salts. —S'AMUSER.

TAX FACTS

By George J. Mahlin, Executive Secretary
Chicago Federation of Illinois

Under a new legal wrinkle that has recently cropped up, schools are again asking taxpayers to vote a permanent blank check. A blank check has already been voted in Sycamore under this new wrinkle, the Alton schools are asking the taxpayers for a blank check at an election September 18, and it may happen to you. Here is the story.

Under House Bill 513, the maximum tax rate as figured by the county clerk for the educational fund of the Alton School District is $5.222 on each $100 of valuation; for its building fund the maximum rate was figured at $0.822.

The Alton schools say these rate limits are too low. Before the 100% assessment laws, the Alton school tax for educational purposes jumped from $318,149.89 for 1944 to $490,278.85 for 1945, after the people had voted increased taxing power in 1945. For 1947, under the limits of H. B. 513, the Alton school educational tax was $541,001.31. But this still isn't enough, the Alton schools say.

They say they actually need an educational fund rate of .90. This would give them, on the basis of the last known valuation, $932,385.25 — almost three times as much tax money as for 1944, almost twice as much as for 1945, and $390,000 more than for 1946 and 1947. They say they need a building fund rate of .30 which would produce $310,795.08.

Alton compared to $89,463.93 for 1944, $128,826.57 for 1945, $164,675 for 1946 and $85,157.85 for 1947.

But they're not asking the people of Alton to vote the .90 limit for the educational fund and .30 for the building fund that they "need." They're asking for $1.26 for the educational fund, which would produce $1,305,339.35—and .44 for the building fund, which would produce $455,632.79.

The Alton schools say they have to ask for these higher limits because of this new legal wrinkle, that, if it were not for H. B. 513, their present limits would be $1.25 for the educational and .4375 for the building fund under the School Code; that the county superintendent has advised that an election to reduce these rates would be illegal, that these rate limits can only be raised, that, therefore, to escape from the limits of House Bill 513, the schools must ask for a jump to $1.26 for educational purposes, to .44 for building purposes—a permanent blank check.

Representatives of the Illinois Association of School Boards, of which the Alton school board is probably a member, have stated that they don't read the law this way. The Taxpayers' Federation, said experts don't. And the leading tax attorneys in Illinois who have been consulted by the Taxpayers' Federation disagree completely with the Madison County Superintendent. It is their unanimous opinion that the referendum provisions of House Bill 513 govern, and that the tax rate limit under House Bill 513 can be raised or lowered by vote of the people on the basis of needs.

But, if the schools still are afraid of tax objections despite these legal opinions, they can nevertheless safely ask for only what they need without asking the taxpayers to write a blank check. By investing a few cents in postage and letters to the large taxpayers, they can get written commitments that tax objections will not be filed to an election based on asking for taxing power based on needs rather than on this new legal wrinkle. The Taxpayers' Federation got such written commitments within a week from the largest taxpayers in Sycamore.

Such written commitments would protect the Alton schools against the remote possibility of tax objections based on this new wrinkle. The Alton school board

LIKES PAPER

In sending a check to cover our subscription to the Palatine Enterprise I would like to comment on two features which I enjoy very much.

The first is the poems by Grace Noll Crowell which have been appearing each week. This past issue did not contain one, but I hope you will resume same. In these days of controversy and uncertainty it is very helpful to read poems which hold forth the reality of God and His power to help the individual.

The second feature I enjoy is the letter from Mary to Jane in "Just Around the Corner." I have gained much helpful information from this column and always enjoy reading of what "my friend on the farm" has been doing. Perhaps some day I shall be privileged to meet "Mary" and thank her for taking time

PALATINE POLICE

How could you print such an article about our Palatine police on the first page of the paper? It's outrageous! We all know our Palatine police do all they can for the good of our village and if some racers hate to pay their fine or some roughnecks come to our town I believe it's the place of our police to do what's right, even if they have to resort to a gun.

They're here to keep order under any circumstances and smart people know that. Remember, we just had that safety drive through your paper.

Fred DeAyres, Palatine.

ON VACATION

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

by LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

The other day as I was walking along my route thinking about my son and about youth in general and the confusion with which they face the future, I asked myself:

"Why can't young folks decide definitely what they wish to be, and prepare themselves accordingly?" I told myself that they have had better opportunities than I had, better living conditions and educational advantages.

"Do they?" an inner voice asked suddenly.

The answer slowly shaped in my mind into a very definite "No."

In the first place, the young person bent on success spends more years of his life getting a better education than boys and girls in any generation preceding him. With good luck, a boy wishing to be a dentist or other professional man should have a precarious toe hold on his profession shortly after his thirty-fifth birthday. A construction or electrical engineer, if he wishes to excel, will not be ready before his twenty-fourth birthday—and he steps into a highly competitive occupation with practically no experience to bolster the fact that he has a diploma.

I tried to think of a single promising occupation into which young graduates might step? What new endeavor can I not think of one?

In the second place, he must ask, "What is the world coming too? What new endeavor can I prepare for knowing that when I am ready, opportunities will be open?"

War is dangerously close today. The grim aspect of years in uniform haunts the young lad when he thinks of his future. If war comes, what opportunities will be open after it? Will there be prosperity, or will a war weakened, debt-burdened nation enter a depression where for another generation we shall be struggling to find ourselves?

These are only two of the obstacles we have built for the ordinary boy or girl looking into the future. We oldsters often pride ourselves over the opportunities we think we have given youth. Actually we have added to their difficulties, a fact to which all of us, including myself, would like to close our eyes.

Yes, the exceptional boy or girl with good connections will fit neatly into a niche which will be waiting for them, and for the most part will do as well or better than their predecessors. But the young person who must start from scratch and push his way by sheer determination and ability to the top, will find the going harder, more nerve wracking, more uncertain of good results than ever. And I, for one, will never again be guilty of condoning my own mediocre success or belittling my son's problems by comparing his opportunities with my own.

Grapes in the Sun

Grace Noll Crowell

"The sun, which has all those planets revolving around it and dependent upon it, can ripen a cluster of grapes as if it had nothing else in the world to do."

—GALLIO

THIS purple cluster at my fingertips, Sweet with the essence of the sun and rain, Holds all its honeyed nectar for my lips, Holds all of life within its crimson stain.

The sun's long concentration brought to bear Upon the rippling vine, the ripening fruit, Is evidence of the great miraculous care Back of the sod, and deep within the root.

So I today in this strange wilderness, This baffling, bewildering earthly hour, Cling staunchly to the faith that God will bless The humblest child who seeks the central power That is his love, and, facing toward the sun, Wait for fulfillment as this fruit has done.

Seven noted personalities in 11th lecture series

Cornelia Otis Skinner, "the greatest single attraction of the American Theatre today," will be one of seven notable personalities to appear on the 1948-49 Maine Community lecture series, it was announced by the committee at Des Plaines.

Scheduled dates and talent for the 11th year of this outstanding community project are as follows:

Nov. 10, Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr.—"Europe Today."
Nov. 17, Paul Wickman (color movies)—"Scandinavia Today."
Dec. 1, John C. Metcalfe—"Where Are We Going In Foreign Affairs?"
Jan. 5, Northwestern Reviewing Stand—"Where Are We Going In Science?"
Jan. 26, Graham Young (color movies)—"Light On Darkest Africa."
Feb. 13, Roscoe Drummond—"The State Of The Nation."
Feb. 27, Cornelia Otis Skinner—"Character Sketches."

All programs are held in the Maine high school gymnasium. Twelve hundred season tickets ($3, including tax) will go on sale during the latter part of September.

SEPTEMBER

September, the ninth month of our calendar, got its name from the Latin word "Septem"—which means seven. According to the World Book Encyclopedia, Julius Caesar added two months to the Roman calendar and the numerical sequence has been in error ever since.

August highway death toll is 59

Death struck on Chicago and Cook county roadways 59 times during August.

In figures released this week by Coroner A. L. Brodie, the number of fatalities in automobile accidents in the city was 40 during the 31-day month, while 19 persons met their deaths on Cook county highways.

The total figure represents both a boost over the previous month of this year, and the corresponding month in 1947. Here is a breakdown comparison of the auto deaths:

|              | Chgo. | Cook | Total |
|--------------|-------|------|-------|
| August, 1948 | 40    | 19   | 59    |
| August, 1947 | 33    | 20   | 53    |
| July, 1948   | 38    | 12   | 50    |

The month of April, when 61 deaths were listed by the coroner's office, was the high for 1948.

During the eight-month period since January, this year, there have been 307 auto deaths in the city and 113 in Cook county for a total of 418. This is about four percent heavier than during the same period in 1947, when there were 400 deaths.

Chicago traffic engineers point out, however, that the streets and highways are experiencing an all-time record traffic, which more than offsets the increase in deaths due to the auto mishaps.

Service officers of the Illinois Veterans Commission assisted veterans in reinstating more than six million dollars in National Service Life Insurance on July 31, the final date for reinstatement without a physical examination, Homer G. Bradney, Administrator, announced.

Offices of the commission, located throughout the state, remained open until a late hour on Saturday, the 31st, to permit veterans, who could not leave their work during the day to take final advantage of this wartime benefit. Total amount of reinstatement was $6,181,500.

Bradney also reminded veterans that they still may reinstate their lapsed GI insurance by passing a physical examination and paying two month's premiums in advance.

For further information and assistance in insurance problems, veterans should see their Illinois Veterans Commission service officer immediately. In Cook county the office is located at 41 S. Prospect ave., Park Ridge.

Man electrocuted by tension wire

Arthur Diedrich, 38, of Lily Lake, was electrocuted Tuesday of last week while he was helping to lay a gas line near Grayslake, in Lake county.

According to information available, Mr. Diedrich was guiding, by hand, pipe being lifted into place by a giant crane. The crane struck a high-tension wire carrying 133,000 volts which killed Diedrich instantly. The crane operator was not affected.

Lesson in English

Words Often Misused
Do not say, "You do not seem to understand my meaning." It is better to say, "You seem unable to understand my meaning."
Do not say, "I told him to get off of my property." Omit of.
Do not say, "Aren't you aware of your talent?" Say, "Aren't you conscious of your talent?"
Do not say, "This is an understanding between you and I." Say, "between you and me," both personal pronouns being in the objective case.
Do not say, "You will find them everywhere." Say, "everywhere," there being no such word as everywhere.
Do not say, "The men are congregated together for that purpose." Omit together.

Words Often Mispronounced
Hilarious. Pronounce first i as in hit, not as in high.
Duel. Pronounce the u as in fuel, not as oo in tool.
Pique. Pronounce peek.
Perspiration. Pronounce first syllable pers, not press, as is often heard.
Surprise. Pronounce the first r, not sup-rise.
Divest. Pronounce the i as in die, and accent second syllable.

Words Often Misspelled
E'er (contraction of ever). E're (before). Err (to go astray). Cater-cornered; not catta, nor cat-ty. Medal (a memorial coin). Meddle (to interfere). Bankruptcy; observe the tc. Committee; two m's, two t's, and two e's. Counterfeit; felt, not fit.

Word Study
"Use a word three times and it is yours." Let us increase our vocabulary by mastering one word each day. Words for this lesson:

HUMILITY: freedom from pride and arrogance. "True genius is usually accompanied by humility."

IMPENETRABLE: inaccessible, as to reason, sympathy, etc. "He has an impenetrable mind and heart."

PARASITE: one who eats at the table of another, repaying him with flattery. "He listened to the artful compliments of his parasites."

Church building to be torn down after sixty years

The last religious service in a church which has stood as a Lake County landmark for over sixty years, was held September 5, in the Congregational church of Mundelein.

The church building, originally constructed in 1889 by Miss Amelia Holcomb for her school, the Rockefeller Classical institute, became the property of the church in 1895 and was dedicated as a church in March of that year.

Four persons still living took part in the formation of the church and the dedication of the building in 1895. They are Mrs. Robert Rouse, Mrs. Mae Wilson, and Mrs. Frank Shadle, of Mundelein, and Mrs. Anna Kaiser, of Libertyville.

A Buffalo Going Into the Oil Business

PORT ARTHUR, TEXAS.—Passing the camera like a black streak, this young buffalo bull charges from an unloading chute into grounds of the Gulf Oil refinery. He is one of six bison "employed"—probably for the first time in oil industry history—to crop grass around tanks and pipelines. These one-time "kings of the prairie," along with 100 odd Brahman cattle, cows and horses, are being pastured for neighboring ranchers on refinery property, where they save many thousands of dollars in grass cutting bills. But they make risky charges for any but experienced cowhands like B. V. "Bart" Ownby, mounted.

Questions on G. I. bill

Question: Are disabled veterans of World War II eligible for National Service Life Insurance policies?
 Answer: Yes. The recent amendment to the National Service Life Insurance Act provides that any veteran may apply for such insurance even though he has a disability incurred or aggravated in the service, provided he makes application before 1950.

Question: What is meant by "Total Disability" in National Service Life Insurance policies?
 Answer: According to the ruling of the Veterans Administration, total disability is any impairment of mind or body which continuously renders it impossible for the insured to follow any substantially gainful occupation.

Question: How long after discharge does a veteran have to begin his educational benefits?
 Answer: Four years after discharge or at the end of the War whichever is the later date.

Question: How long does a veteran have to complete his G. I. educational benefits?
 Answer: He has nine years after the end of the war to complete his training.

Mrs. Harry Babbington, 1036 East Marquette road, has been awarded sixty dollars as first prize winner of the "Women Only—Slogan Contest" adding 25 words or less to the unfinished sentences: "Every woman should vote the straight Republican ticket because..."

Mrs. Babbington's prize winning ending to the sentence read: "Because women of America need freedom, security, and good leadership."

The contest was conducted under the auspices of the Women's Division of the Republican Central Committee of Cook county. Irene B. Reidy, chairman, at the Republican Women's Holiday held at Sportsman Golf Course on the 28th anniversary of Woman Suffrage.

Q. Before going to the church, where should the attendants of the bride assemble?
 A. They should be at the home of the bride about an hour before the ceremony is to take place, this depending too upon the distance to be traveled to the church.

Q. At what time should the water goblets be filled at the dinner table?
 A. Immediately before the guests are called in to dinner.

Q. Isn't it correct for a divorced woman to continue wearing her rings?
 A. Yes, as this is entirely optional. She has a right to wear the rings if she wishes.

Q. Is it necessary to repeat a person's name with each introduction, when introducing him to a group of persons?
 A. No. In this instance, one may say, "Mr. Smith, this is Mr. Jones, Mr. Wilson, Mr. Gray, and Mr. Doe," with a slight gesture of the hand to indicate each person.

Q. If one has received a wedding announcement, is it good manners to write a letter to the bride?
 A. Yes; it would be nice to send best wishes, but it is not obligatory unless an invitation to the ceremony is received.

Q. Does a woman have the privilege of refusing to shake hands, even if the person she meets extends his hand?
 A. No; never refuse an offered hand.

Q. How many bridesmaids and ushers should be included in the wedding party?
 A. There is no set and definite number, this depending entirely upon the manner and setting of the wedding, and the bride's wishes.

Q. How soon after making a visit should the bread-and-butter letter be written?
 A. If possible, write it within two or three days after returning home, and never delay any longer than a week.

Q. If someone mispronounces one's name, would it be all right to correct him?
 A. Yes, of course, but do so graciously and without showing any resentment.

1949 sugar beet crop prospects deemed good

Saginaw—A sharp increase in sugar beet plantings in 1949 may be forthcoming in view of bumper wheat and corn crops, reduced livestock population, and sliding grain prices, says the Farmers and Manufacturers Beet Sugar Ass'n.

Financial returns from sugar beets have always been good over the years, the association points out, because they are a contract crop and not so subject to price fluctuations. Farmers are bound to take this into consideration in making their cropping plans for next year, the association declares.

Many farmers already have expressed an intention of converting 1948 wheat land to sugar beets, reports the association. They are getting ready to cash in on the heavy straw and stubble residue by plowing it down this fall, with nitrogen fertilizer added where available, to furnish the needed "kick" in fertility for high sugar beet yields, says the association.

Poultryman plans now for his green feed

Springtime is the season for green feeds in Nature's scheme, but the wise poultryman wants to do all he can to stretch out this "green" season as long as possible. Green feed has great value for most livestock.

It's not too early for the poultryman to be thinking about the supply of green feeds for next year, points out S. F. Riden, extension poultry specialist at the University of Illinois. Range for next year should be started now to insure an early supply of green feeds.

C. A. Hughes suggested clovers, alfalfa and lespedeza as crops that rank high for poultry range. A good supply of green feed will help to reduce feed costs and will supply poultry with a natural feed.

Now, during the early fall, is also the time to arrange to feed green feeds or roughage during the coming winter months, according to Riden. Mangels, cabbage, and other succulent green feeds tend to whet the hen's appetite, increasing feeding consumption and activity.

Wire or slat racks in the laying house are a good way to supply good green hay. Chickens like green hay, and it will take the place of some of the green stuff the pullets have been eating on the summer range.

ST. AUGUSTINE, FLA.—Look at the shine on the shell of this 500-year-old Galapagos Island tortoise. It's the first cleaning and polishing the old boy has received in his lifetime. Note the dull shells in the foreground as contrasted to the one which has been polished with liquid wax. These tortoises are believed to be the oldest in the world. The Galapagos tortoises are desert dwellers in their native islands and do not care for water.

Palatine horses win 40 awards at state fairs

August proved an eventful month for the Frank C. Rathje, Palatine, show string Percherons. With the opening of the state fairs, in which they entered, the Wisconsin, Illinois and Ohio, they claimed a total of 40 awards which represents in turn, a share of the premium money paid at each fair, or a share of Wisconsin's $1,920; Illinois' $2,216, and of Ohio's $8,850.

In this enviable collection of ribbons will be found a grand and a senior championship on the mare, Virginia Dawn, from the Wisconsin show; a junior and a reserve championship on the excellent young stallion, Director U. L. C., and from Illinois, the blue ribbon of top of the class on both the mare and stallion, while from Ohio, a first on the young stallion, and a reserve junior championship on the mare Koncarann.

The mares, Virginia Dawn and Koncarann, are both sired by the international grand champion, Silver Dawn Koncarano, the Rathje herd sire, and the young mare, Koncarann is the daughter of Encantadora, a mare that created a sensation in 1946 by selling for $2500 to a Wisconsin breeder, at a time heavy horse prices were very low.

Still plenty of oil says expert

Modern exploratory and production methods have lifted the known volume of crude oil underground in the United States to the highest in history, more than nine hundred billion gallons, despite unprecedented demands for oil products, Stanton K. Smith, chairman of the Illinois Oil Industry Information Committee, announced today.

Besides crude oil, the known reserves of condensates, natural gasoline and other liquefied petroleum gases, which form part of the supply, total more than 130 billion gallons. This fact, Mr. Smith said, should dispel fears that "we are running out of oil." Modern technological developments have increased the percentage of oil that may be recovered from a well from about 20 per cent a few decades ago to several times that percentage today. Careful control of the flow from wells, development of equipment for uses at the well head that prevents the wasteful "gusher" and repressuring of wells by gas and water, all have contributed to increasing the yield of oil. The airborne magneto-meter, the water-borne seismograph, and the gravimeter have taken a lot of the guess work out of searching for oil, thus contributing to the increased reserves.

For A Dutch Taste
Dutch have a way with potato soup that makes it really something special. To this hearty favorite they add bits of bacon—one piece that have been panfried, lightly. Occasionally, too, the saute diced green pepper with the bacon and add to the soup.

Don't Neglect Them!

Nature designed the kidneys to do a marvelous job. Their task is to keep the blood stream free of all toxins—poisons. The act of living—its very life—is constantly producing waste matter. The kidneys must remove this waste from the blood if good health is to endure. When the kidneys fail to function as Nature intended, there is retention of waste that may cause body-wide distress. One may suffer nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up at night, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feeling tired, nervous, all worn out.

Frequent, scanty or burning passages are sometimes further evidence of kidney or bladder disturbance.

The recognized and proper treatment is a diuretic medicine to help the kidneys get rid of excess poisonous body waste. Use Doan's Pills. They have had more than forty years of public approval. Are endorsed by the country over. Insist on Doan's. Sold at all drug stores.

LAW on the FARM

State legislatures have generally encouraged the organization of farmers' crop, soil and home improvement associations as sound educational devices. The Illinois legislature recognized their importance in 1913 when it passed "an act to enable the county boards to appropriate funds for the use of soil and crop improvement and home improvement associations of their several counties."

This law states that "the county boards... are authorized and empowered to appropriate to and for the use of county soil and crop improvement associations and home improvement associations, or any other like associations organized for the improvement of general agriculture or home conditions, a sum not to exceed $5,000 per annum."

THE ACT further provides that "it shall be the duty of the treasurer of such association receiving money from the county board to prepare at least annually a complete and detailed statement or report of the manner in which the money shall have been expended."

This law has not been used extensively in Illinois. Doubtless part of the reason is the substantial membership fees paid by farmers to their organizations. In some other states county board appropriations form a major part of the funds available to such organizations. Additional aid is given Illinois farmers through an appropriation from the University of Illinois to pay a part of the salaries of county farm and home advisers.

The law relative to soil and crop improvement associations is in the Illinois Revised Statutes, Chapter 34, sections 153 and 159.

Rules for Home Decoration

Three good rules to follow in home decoration are: (1) All objects chosen should suit the house in size, color and style. (2) Pieces of furniture should be comfortable, well made and should harmonize with one another. (3) Everything chosen should suit the requirements of the family and the family purse.

Job Is to Out-wit Weather When It Comes to Making Hay Without Sun

By IRA MILLER

Farm Electrification Bureau

Weather never remains neutral on the farm. It is either "for or ag'in you. Rain can be of the welcome "million dollar" variety or the frustrating sort which starts just as you are bringing in the hay and continues for two or three days. Such a prolonged downpour has ruined many a valuable hay crop. For years farmers accepted such conditions as being beyond their control. They made or lost on their hay crops according to the whims of Old Man Weather.

Fortunately, the nation's agricultural experts became interested in the problem. They believed that something could be done to outsmart the weather and, at the same time, help farmers to produce a better quality of hay. Their research led to the development of several different types of hay curing systems. Of these, slatted floor and lateral duct systems predominate. Curing is accomplished by charging air through the hay. Usually, this is done by means of blowers or 36-inch fans, operated by 5 horsepower motors.

Essentially, most mow curing systems start with a main duct which extends from the fan chamber through the center or along the side of the barn. Large barns may use two fans and two central ducts. In each case, air is blown into the central duct, and released through side openings under the slatted (false) floor in one system and into lateral ducts in the other system. Air passes upward through the hay which is piled in layers on the slatted floor or laterals. If laterals are used, air is released through openings located in the top or bottom of each section.

Tests show that deeper layers of hay can be cured with a slatted floor system. Curing time, however, is about the same for all types, averaging from a week to ten days per layer. Hay can be cut in the morning and, under average conditions, put in the barn in the afternoon. Long, baled or chopped hay can be cured in the mow. It is safe to store if its moisture content is 20 percent or less.

The use of a time switch provides for automatic operation of the hay curing equipment. Barn cured hay is greener, leafier and has more food value than field-dried hay.

The cost of a typical system averages from 25 to 35 cents per square foot of barn floor area. This includes lumber, blower, labor, motor and automatic controls. Electricity costs vary from 75 cents to $1.50 per ton for the complete curing period.

CLEAN HOGS

The idea that hogs are filthy in their habits is untrue says the World Book Encyclopedia. Hogs will not stuff themselves with food the way other animals—and humans—sometimes will. Hogs wriggle in the mud because it helps keep them cool and removes extra oil on their skins.

DDT still packs a punch

If your community has completed a fly-control campaign this summer and you still see some flies around, you'd better think twice before putting the blame on DDT. Chances are that it's human nature that's to blame.

H. B. Petty, fly control specialist, says the state-wide fly-control campaign has been so successful that the few flies that are left get a lot of attention. Petty, who is an entomologist with the University of Illinois College of Agriculture and the State Natural History Survey, has been one of the leaders in the drive to rid the state of flies this year.

"A few years ago we were so used to seeing swarms of flies that we didn't think much about it," Petty says. "Now we expect DDT to be 100 percent perfect without realizing that the fellow who wheels the sprayer isn't always 100 percent perfect. As a result, the few flies that are left cause a lot of concern, and some folks get the idea that DDT has lost its punch or that flies have built up a resistance to the spray."

ACTUALLY, Petty says, all evidence shows that DDT packs a terrific punch when used properly and when fly-control spraying is coupled with careful and constant sanitation.

"It doesn't do much good to spray and then forget about sanitation," Petty says. "Flies multiply rapidly in filth, so clean-up and sanitation must be practiced every day."

Where flies seem to be especially numerous, Petty suggests that DDT be applied again and that another effort be made to make sure that all refuse is burned or destroyed.

Displaced Polish persons for farms and house work

"I have a request from the American Committee for Resettlement of Polish D. P.'s for assistance in finding locations for these people who will be brought in about October 1," states Farm Adviser C. A. Hughes.

"I have indicated that possibly Cook County might hire about 35 on farms—20 skilled in farming, 5 unskilled, and 10 for house work. Some farm families may be secured. We are told they are carefully picked to become good citizens. I have no details further, but request persons wishing help to write directly to the Polish American Congress, Inc., 1514 West Division street, Chicago. Phone ARmington 0700. State your requirements, and your ability to employ."

"Or Ukrainian D. P.'s may be secured by writing United Ukrainian American Relief Committee, Inc., P. O. Box 1661, Philadelphia 5, Pa., asking for Housing and Employment Registration Form No. 1."

Silo may need repairing

Silos may help to make good use of the bumper crop of cornstalks that is growing on Illinois farms this year. The silo, if in good condition, can reduce waste of the stover and at the same time make readily available bountiful supplies of succulent feed for the farm's livestock.

J. G. Andros, University of Illinois extension agricultural engineer, offers some suggestions for getting the silo in good condition:

First, it should be cleaned thoroughly. This means cleaning out the pit and scraping any old silage off the walls.

The walls should then be examined for air leaks that may cause the silage to spoil. Melted paraffin can be used to fill small cracks in mortar joints or between the silo staves. You may use a paint brush to apply the melted paraffin.

"A well-conducted tour for farmers to the historic New England States is being set up by our friend, 'Captain' Mast of the Agricultural Leader's Digest, 139 North Clark street, Chicago, 2. The tour ends October 28."

"The tour includes Niagara Falls, New York City, Boston, etc. Write for details if you are interested," states Farm Adviser C. A. Hughes.

English spelling wastes hours, funds, says N.U. prof

There are no more oddities in the sidishow at a "psoloquoise" than there are in English spelling, believes Falk Johnson, instructor in English at Northwestern University.

He is of the opinion that some streamlining would do our written language a lot of good, but what's holding up the reform—and will continue to hold up the reform—is the English-speaking world's habit of clinging to spelling customs. "The linguistic reflexes involved in reading and writing just don't tolerate the od and the nufangl," he said.

In his researches into the history and peculiarities of English spelling, Mr. Johnson found numerous examples which are no less weird than the contrived "psoloquoise" for "circus," which he used to illustrate how silly our spelling can be. (The "us" in "psychology" is pronounced like the first "c" in "circus"; the "olo" may be pronounced "ir" as in "colonel"; the second "c" in "circus" is like the "qu" in "bouquet"; and the "us" like the "oise" in "tortoise.")

THOSE SILENT letters are one of the most important differences between English as it is spoken and as it is written. Many now silent letters in the language were pronounced about 500 years ago, Mr. Johnson explained, when the printer Caxton introduced his craft into England and, quite naturally, included such letters in the printed word. Since then, however, the letters have disappeared from the spoken language, but have persisted, "imbedded like fossils," in the written English.

For instance, the "l" in "would" was pronounced in Caxton's day, but now, although unpronounced, it still remains in the spelling, along with some silent letters which never were pronounced in the history of the language.

Among supreme examples of the idiosyncrasy of silent letters in the written word, Mr. Johnson cited "knickknack." "This incredible word," he said, "includes a silent double 'k', and has the same letter silent four times."

Of the 604,000 words in the unabridged Merriam-Webster dictionary, more than 400,000 have been estimated to have at least one silent letter, and many, of course have more than one, he explained.

IS IT ACTUALLY possible to change an unreasonable and wasteful system of spelling deeply ingrained in the linguistic habits of a quarter of a billion people living on the several separate continents of the English-speaking world? Answers to this question differ, Mr. Johnson pointed out, but the proponents of spelling reform insist that the needed changes can be made, and that spelling has undergone necessary alterations in every period in which the language has been recorded.

For example, the medieval spellings, "housbonde," "mynde," and "ygone," have been replaced by the familiar "husband," "mind," and "gone." As recently as the last century, Mr. Johnson explained, Noah Webster, the dictionary man, was instrumental in throwing the silent "k" out of words such as "music" and "logic."

Plans advanced for spelling reform are roughly of two types, those which favor phonetic spelling (duplicating the actual sounds of words with a new alphabet) and simplified spelling, the Northwestern teacher said. Most conservative reformers, however, do not recommend anything so drastic as phonetic spelling. They do not believe that the present system should be replaced by a new one, or that the present alphabet should be tinkered with. Rather, they want to keep, and gradually to simplify, the present system, such as removing one "k" at a time from "knock," until the English public becomes accustomed to gradual change.

PRESENT spelling causes a waste of time and educational funds. Spelling, which should be as easy and effortless as speaking, is a lifetime task. Even the most educated persons need dictionaries constantly at their elbows. Mr. Johnson recalled one estimate of losses involved in learning English spelling: a half billion man-years per generation. However, in spite of the many inefficiencies in the spelling of the language, Mr. Johnson said that important changes won't come in his lifetime—or ours.

Teachers need greater mental hygiene training

Teacher-training institutions would do well to give more attention to conditions which foster mental health among pupils and teachers, and less to the psychology of certain subjects, a Northwestern University educator said.

Paul A. Witty, professor of education and director of the University's psycho-educational clinic, declared: "At the present time, most colleges and universities which train teachers do little to insure that well-balanced, stable personalities are developed. Moreover, the mental health of teachers is infrequently considered by persons responsible for employing them. Boards of education should inquire concerning not only the physical fitness of prospective teachers, but also concerning their mental health."

Gems of thought

POLITENESS
True politeness is perfect ease and freedom. It simply consists in treating others just as you love to be treated yourself.

—Chesterfield
Good manners are the blossom of good sense and good feeling.

—Samuel Johnson
True politeness requires humility, good sense, and benevolence. To think more highly of ourselves than we ought to think, destroys its quickening principle.

—Lydia H. Sigourney
Self-denial is practical, and is not only polite to all but is pleasant to those who practice it.

—Mary Baker Eddy
Good manners and soft words have brought many a difficult thing to pass.

—Vanbrugh
There is no policy like politeness since a good manner often succeeds where the best tongue has failed.

DO YOU KNOW—

That "pin money" is an expression that has been handed down to us from the earliest ages. The importation of pins into England was forbidden (1483) but Queen Catherine (of Aragon) received hers from France. They were very expensive and with the ladies "pin money" was a consideration.

Expert tells how to plant a small tree

The tree transplanting season gets under way this month (September) and continues through until the leaves come out next year. D. Q. Grove, chief field supervisor of the Davey Tree Expert Co., advises that the mortality rate for planting small deciduous trees—those that shed their leaves in the Fall—is high, unnecessarily so.

Care in planting is the major requirement to be reasonably sure the sapling will survive. It is not enough just to dig a hole and fill it with any kind of earth. The hole should be wider than the roots and 18 inches or more deep to allow for root spread.

And simply filling with the newly spaded earth is taboo. The fill should be made with a mixture of earth and peat moss, the later one quarter to one half the amount of soil. Clay and sand soils require the greater peat mixture. Before setting the sapling, a portion of the good branches as well as all damaged or broken ones must be trimmed.

IN SETTING young trees, Davey experts make sure they are placed a little lower than they grew in the nursery. They spread the roots out naturally in the hole and cut off all broken or injured roots. The earth-peat moss mixture is then packed firmly about the roots. This is accomplished by gently moving the sapling up and down when filling in. When the hole is three quarters filled, water is poured to the top. The fill is completed when the water settles. Earth is not rounded up around the base of the tree.

A peat moss mulch one to four inches deep is then laid over the area, extended one foot beyond the root spread. Immediately after transplanting, the accepted practice is to "feed" the tree with a good fertilizer and to continue this at least once each year afterwards.

Growth of Chick

High quality chicks may reach an average three pound weight at 12 weeks and may produce a pound of poultry meat for each three and one-half to four pounds of feed consumed.

Don't faint—until you're sure of a cure

A health quiz exhibit at Cook county fair is proving it doesn't pay to faint any more.

The question that most of the 800 daily visitors miss when they play a 20-question game about health is what to do when someone feels faint.

The answer is simply to lower your head, but the majority of people suggest getting fresh air or a glass of water.

Two other questions are missed almost as frequently, according to Dr. Edward A. Piszczek, director of Cook county department of public health, which is sponsoring the exhibit.

One of them asks the best way to protect your child against diphtheria is by having him immunized: (1) before he is a year old; (2) when he is three years old; or (3) just before he enters school. The correct answer is "before he is a year old."

The other "stumper" is on what milk pasteurization does: (1) makes milk safe for drinking; (2) improves the flavor; or (3) kills the germs. Again the first named answer is considered correct, for pasteurization doesn't kill all germs, only the disease-producing ones.

First piano ensemble school to open Sept. 13

Antoinette Rich, world famous as the originator of symphonizing of music for Piano-Orchestra and founder (1942) of the three Chicago Piano Symphony Orchestras, announces the opening of the Chicago Piano Ensemble training school for Beginning, Intermediate and Advanced piano students. Enrollments for entrance into the school and auditions for placement of advanced players in the Piano Symphony will be accepted until the opening of the school on Monday, September 13. The school season will terminate on June 6, 1949 upon which date all students will participate in a Piano Symphony recital-concert in Orchestra Hall.

at which time honorary certificates of accomplishment will be awarded according to each student's degree of development. The Ensemble school, located in the Penthouse atop the Fine Arts building at 410 S. Michigan avenue, will accept a limited enrollment of 176 students.

Are YOU Going Thru CHANGE of LIFE?

causing you to suffer from HOT FLUSHES?

Does the functional "middle-age" period peculiar to women (38-52 yrs.) make you suffer from hot flushes, feel so nervous, high-strung, irritable, weak? Then try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve such symptoms. It's famous for this!

Taken regularly - Pinkham's Compound helps build up resistance against such "middle-age" distress. It's what Doctors call a uterine sedative. It positively contains no opiates - no habit-forming drugs. Pinkham's Compound helps nature (you know what we mean).

It's also a great stomachic tonic! Any druggist.
